SERMON NOTES

“Building Your Best Life”

The Conclusion of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount!

Three contrasts: Matthew 7:13-23

1. The narrow gate (of obedience to Jesus) AND the wide gate (of self-absorption).
2. The good tree (wise teachers of truth, producing fruit of obedience) AND the bad tree (false prophets like wolves in sheep’s clothing).
3. Those who truly learn and “do the will of my Father” AND those who call Jesus “Lord” yet stop short of full obedience.

The fourth contrast: Matthew 7:24-29

4. The wise one who puts Jesus’ words into practice AND the foolish one who doesn’t.

“What we have come to call the Sermon on the Mount is a concise statement of Jesus’ teachings on how to actually live in the reality of God’s present kingdom available to us from the very space surrounding our bodies. It concludes with a statement that all who hear and do what He there says will have a life that can stand up to everything -- that is, a life for eternity because it is already in the eternal.” Dallas Willard, The Divine Conspiracy, p 97.
